35MM & DIGITAL DOCUMENTARIAN

HEY THERE

I'm Mandie

Thank you for inquiring with this little love of mine; Thistle and Pine. Since 2018, I have been bringing my clients to tears with their wedding galleries, belly laughs with their sessions and joy with their heirloom photos.

First, I am an artist. I am here to create not only images that were documented without you knowing, but pieces of art you won't ever believe you were a part of.

The Thistle and Pine experience is hands on, fine tuned and catered to each individual client or couple; I am here as a resource and a friend!

Please review my collections, enjoy the experience and sit back and enjoy your day.

Love ya already,
Mandie

KIND WORDS

Mandie's amazing! I did so much research looking for a photographer with simply beautiful, high-quality and timeless photography style. I instantly fell in love with her portfolio, and her love for film! We chose Thistle & Pine for our engagement and wedding photos. Our engagement photos turned out beautiful - and she made the shoot feel so fun and easy! We can't wait to work with her on our wedding day. Her creative eye, paired with her funny, easy-going personality makes taking photos so fun. If you want a professional but fun experience & high-quality, film and digital photos, definitely go with Mandie!

Danae and Michael

Mandie has a creative eye, quick wit, and spunky charm. We always look forward to shoots with her! Our wedding day was the third time we've been in front of her lenses (she somehow attaches multiple cameras to herself at once). Mandie is always up for any challenge and/or adventure and hopefully our next session with her will be in Europe!

Michael and Chelsea

Hire her! When looking through all my options in Colorado for the perfect engagement/wedding photographer, Mandie stood out. We immediately connected on our love for film and the vintage/countryside photography look! She made our engagement shoot so stress free and fun. I cannot wait for our wedding day and all the sweet moments she'll capture:)
